

Script for the Forgiving Father (Prodigal Son)

Narrator 1: Jesus continued: [Low voice] “There was a man who had two sons. “

Narrator 2: The younger one said to his father, [High male voice] 'Father, give me my share of the estate.'

Narrator 1: So he divided his property between them.
[Father divides his property - deeds, money, etc.]

Narrator 2: "Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living.
[Younger son, leaves, then we see him drinking, gambling, smoking a cigar, laughing heartily]

After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need.

[He loses his robe in gambling, he looks in his purse of money and can't find anything more, begins to look really hungry, holding his stomach, etc.]

So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

[He is feeding the pigs and looking really hungry – thinking about eating the pods that the pigs have]

"When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired men.'

So he got up and went to his father.
[He begins walking away from the pigs to another place]

Narrator 1: "But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

Narrator 2: "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

Narrator 1: "But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate. For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.
[The servants run to get the robe and ring and run out again to bring in a great platter]

of food.]

[The older brother is walking toward the house and hear the noise within and encounters a slave coming out of the house]

Narrator 3: [Medium male voice] "Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on.

Narrator 4: [Funny accent] 'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

Narrator 3: "The older brother became angry and refused to go in.

Narrator 1: So his father went out and pleaded with him. But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

Narrator 1: "My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' "
